The keys are in your hand, the moving truck is on its way and the house looks clean enough at a glance. Then you open the kitchen cabinets. Move in house cleaning in Roanoke gives you a true fresh start, so your dishes, clothes and kids are not unpacked into someone else's dust. The Happy Housekeepers has been preparing homes for new owners and renters across the Click here for info Roanoke Valley since 1979.

The best time to clean a home is when it is empty, and move-in day is your one chance. Without furniture in the way, the crew can reach every baseboard, every inch of carpet and every corner of the hard floors. Bathrooms get a total clean-up, the kitchen gets a complete clean-up, and specialized tasks such as cleaning refrigerator and oven interiors, washing walls and woodwork and cleaning light fixtures can be added.

Newcomers to the Roanoke area show up often in the company's customer reviews. People relocating from Atlanta and other cities mention how much it helped to have a dependable local team in place right away. One customer review names Stan, who handled both the estimate and a move-in clean, which gives you a sense of how personal the process can be at a family-run business.

Move-in cleaning also matters for health and peace of mind. Previous owners may have had pets, smoked or simply stopped deep cleaning while the house was on the market. A thorough clean before you move in clears away dust, cobwebs and residue so you start your time in the house on your own terms. Many buyers in Cave Spring, Salem and Vinton schedule it for the day between closing and the moving truck.

After the first visit, the office follows up with a phone call to make sure you are satisfied. If you like the results, it is easy to keep the momentum going with weekly, bi-weekly or monthly house cleaning. Nothing is required, though, and every estimate is free with no obligation. The company is licensed, bonded and insured and holds a BBB blue seal.

It also helps to think about the spaces you will not be able to reach once you are settled. The inside of kitchen cabinets, the top of the refrigerator, closet shelves and the floor under where the sofa will sit are all easy to clean while the house is empty and nearly impossible later. Telling the crew about those priorities during the free estimate means nothing gets missed.
