The private tented camps Mara sits in a malaria risk area, so prophylaxis is recommended for most travellers. Consult a travel clinic weeks before departure because masai mara luxury tented camp some regimens start before arrival.

Routine vaccinations should be current, and a yellow fever certificate is required if arriving from a risk country.

Use repellent in the evening, sleep under nets where provided, and wear long sleeves after dark. Medical facilities inside the reserve are limited, so evacuation cover matters. Health preparation details are at %LINK%.

