The procedure of getting a Category B license in Hungary is divided into distinct educational and screening stages.

[Medical Check] ➔ [Theory Course & & Exam] ➔ [First Aid Course & & Exam] ➔ [Practical Lessons & & Exam] ➔ [License Issuance]

Step A: Theoretical Training and Exam

Applicants should complete a minimum variety of hours in theory classes. A lot of schools use these classes online in English, making it available for non-Hungarian speakers. The syllabus covers traffic policies, road indications, and basic car mechanics.

- The Exam: Once the course is ended up, candidates take a digital multiple-choice test at a designated government screening center (Közlekedési Alkalmassági és Vizsgaközpont - KAV).
- Language Options: The theory examination can be taken in Hungarian, English, or German.

Step B: First Aid Certification

In Hungary, completing an accredited First Aid course administered by the Gyors Vezetői Engedély Beszerzése Hungarian Red Cross (Magyar Vöröskereszt) is a legal requirement before getting any driving license.

- The course normally lasts one day and includes practical training on CPR and bandaging.
- Following the course, candidates need to pass a brief useful and theoretical emergency treatment examination. (Note: Holders of certain medical degrees or formerly released expert licenses might be exempt).

Step C: Practical Driving Lessons

With the theory examination passed, students can finally support the wheel. In Hungary, useful training is split into two main requirements:

1. Minimum Hour Requirement: Students should complete at least 29 hours of driving, plus an additional test drive hour, amounting to a minimum of 30 hours. However, numerous students need additional hours to feel great.
2. Distance Requirement: Out of the needed hours, students must drive a minimum range of 580 kilometers, that includes driving in city locations, night driving, and highway driving.

Step D: The Practical Driving Exam

The last obstacle is the practical driving test, performed with a main inspector from the KAV. The test lasts roughly 50 minutes and is divided into three parts:

- Vehicle Check: The examiner will ask the student to examine particular parts of the automobile (e.g., tires, lights, fluid levels).
- Standard Maneuvers: Parking, supporting, and turning the lorry in a confined area.
- Traffic Driving: Navigating real-world traffic conditions while following the inspector's directions.
