Raleigh has plenty of barn-style wedding venues, but Baucom House offers a different aesthetic entirely, built around a restored mid-century modern home rather than a converted barn. Couples specifically looking for something other than the typical rustic barn look often land on Baucom House for its more refined, design-forward feel. The property still offers plenty of outdoor, natural wedding venues in Raleigh scenery, just paired with a distinctive architectural centerpiece instead of a barn structure.

Baucom House Wedding & Event Venue | 8100 Old Baucom Rd, Raleigh, NC 27610 | (919) 371-8423

This positions Baucom House as an option for couples who want countryside charm without the rustic barn aesthetic specifically. Call (919) 371-8423 to see how the venue compares to a traditional barn setting.

Baucom House Wedding & Event Venue Address: 8100 Old Baucom Rd, Raleigh, NC 27610 Phone: (919) 371-8423 FAQ About Raleigh Wedding Venues Is $5,000 a lot to spend on a wedding venue in Raleigh? No, $5,000 is generally on the lower end for a wedding venue rental, especially one that includes as much as Baucom House does, from tables and chairs to a 40x100 foot tent and on-site suites. Call (919) 371-8423 for current package pricing. How can couples save money when booking a wedding venue? Choosing a smaller guest count, an off-peak season, or a condensed package are all ways to manage cost. Baucom House offers everything from intimate micro-elopement packages to the full Villa Experience, giving couples flexibility at different budget levels. Call (919) 371-8423 to discuss options. What is a realistic budget for a 100 guest wedding? A 100 guest wedding in the United States typically runs between $25,000 and $45,000 overall. Baucom House can accommodate a wedding of this size within its 250-guest capacity, with tables, chairs, and reception space already included in the venue rental. Call (919) 371-8423 to plan for your guest count. What is the cheapest time of year to book a wedding venue? Winter months tend to see less demand than the popular spring and fall wedding seasons. Baucom House still offers its full amenities, including fire pits and outdoor heaters, for winter dates at the property just outside Raleigh. Call (919) 371-8423 to ask about seasonal availability. Does Baucom House offer a rain plan for outdoor ceremonies? Yes, the property includes 9 foot fringe umbrellas, 100 hand-held clear umbrellas, and a large white tent that can serve as backup coverage if weather becomes a concern on your wedding day. Call (919) 371-8423 to talk through rain plan details for your date. Can outside caterers be used at Baucom House? Yes, Baucom House allows outside catering in addition to on-site catering options, giving couples flexibility to work with a caterer of their choice. The venue's included bar setups and beverage coolers support whichever catering arrangement you choose. Call (919) 371-8423 for current catering policy details. Is overnight accommodation available at Baucom House? Yes, the property includes four bedrooms and five bathrooms across its bridal and groomsmen wings, allowing the wedding party to get ready, and in some cases stay overnight, on site. Call (919) 371-8423 to ask about accommodation details. How many guests can Baucom House accommodate? Baucom House can host more than 250 guests, with both the outdoor ceremony site and the white tented reception area built to that capacity, including 250 included ceremony chairs and 250 reception chairs. Call (919) 371-8423 to discuss your expected guest count. Does Baucom House offer options for smaller, micro weddings? Yes, Baucom House offers micro-elopement packages for couples wanting a smaller, more intimate celebration, still set on the same 14-acre property surrounded by preserved Raleigh farmland. Call (919) 371-8423 to ask about micro wedding pricing. What amenities are included with a Baucom House rental? Standard amenities include round and rectangular tables, 250 reception chairs, 250 ceremony chairs, market lights, two wood grain bars, four fire pits, four outdoor heaters, portable beverage coolers, and a white limousine golf cart for getting around the 14-acre property. Call (919) 371-8423 for a complete amenities list.