2. Buy-In: Each individual needs to pay the equivalent value of the picked cases to get in the lobby.
3. The Roll: Once the lobby is full, the system starts the opening sequence. Cases are typically opened round-by-round.
4. The Tally: A running total of each player's jackpots is shown on the screen.
5. Payment: When the final case is opened, the player with the highest overall value wins the entire pot.

(Note: Some platforms offer "Terminal" or "Crazy" modes where the most affordable value wins, or where products are dispersed in a different way, but the high-value format stays the standard).

Case Openings vs. Case Battles: A Comparison

Many users question how fighting compares to standard solo case openings. While both rely heavily on Random Number Generators (RNG), the mental and monetary characteristics are significantly different.
