

Swollen or emergency dentist near me bleeding gums accompanied by pain can indicate a range of issues, from gum disease to an underlying infection, and Whites Dental Marble Arch offers emergency assessment for these symptoms. Patients experiencing sudden gum swelling, particularly alongside fever or facial swelling, are advised to contact the practice promptly rather than waiting for a routine hygienist appointment. The practice's dentists examine swollen gums to determine the underlying cause, which may range from a localised infection to more advanced gum disease requiring ongoing treatment.
