Gamers exist with a grid (normally 5x5) filled with covert tiles. Behind these tiles lie two types of signs: gems (diamonds/stars) and mines (bombs).

The goal is easy: click on tiles to expose gems. Each gem exposes a multiplier that increases your preliminary bet. However, if you click on a mine, the round ends, and you lose your stake. The tension lies in the "Cash Out" mechanic-- gamers can stop at any time to secure their present jackpots, or they can push their luck to expose more gems for a higher payout.

The Mechanics of Risk vs. Reward

The beauty of the Mines game lies in its customizability. Most platforms allow players to adjust the difficulty level by choosing how numerous mines are concealed on the grid.

Number of Mines	Threat Level	Possible Multiplier Range
1	Really Low	1.01 x-- 1.20 x
3	Low/Medium	1.10 x-- 2.50 x
5	Medium	1.25 x-- 5.00 x
10	High	2.50 x-- 25.00 x
20	Extreme	15.00 x-- 500.00 x
