

Head On Collisions on San Antonio Roads Two vehicles moving toward each other combine their speeds at the moment of impact. That simple bit of physics explains why head on collisions are among the most violent crashes on any road. They don't happen as often as rear end or side impact wrecks, but when they do, the injuries tend to be severe. Traumatic brain injuries, spinal cord damage, broken bones, burns and wrongful death claims all come up far more often after a head on crash. In and around San Antonio, these wrecks usually trace back to a handful of causes. Drunk drivers entering a highway the wrong way are one. Drivers drifting across the center line while texting are another. Speeding on curvy two-lane stretches, unsafe passing and fatigue late at night play a role too. Busy roads like Bandera Road near Loop 1604, Culebra Road near Loop 1604 and Blanco Road see heavy mixed traffic, and the Hill Country routes heading toward Boerne have long, winding sections where one bad decision leaves nowhere to go. Statewide, TxDOT data shows one reportable crash every 57 seconds and not a single deathless day on Texas roads in 2024. Head on cases often need more work than a typical fender bender claim. Investigators may look at skid marks, vehicle data and debris patterns to prove which car crossed into the wrong lane. If the other driver was drunk or acting with gross negligence, Texas law allows exemplary damages on top of compensation for medical bills, lost earning capacity, pain, physical impairment and disfigurement. Insurance can be a real problem, because Texas minimum liability limits of $30,000 per person rarely cover catastrophic injuries. <https://archerhojf165.lucialpiazza.com/san-antonio-car-accident-lawyer-at-the-aguirre-law-firm-llc> Your UM/UIM coverage may become a key source of recovery. Families who lose someone in a head on crash usually have two years to bring a wrongful death claim.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC | 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 | (210) 922-0808

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases alongside everyday car accident claims. Its published results include $2.0M in a wrongful death trucking accident and $1.5M in a trucking accident case, though every case is different and past results don't promise future outcomes. Founder Alex Aguirre has more than 20 years of personal injury experience and is licensed in federal courts throughout Texas. Clients say the team talked directly with their doctors and surgeons to plan treatment after serious injuries. If you or a family member was hurt in a head on crash, talk to a car accident lawyer in San Antonio who handles serious injury cases. Call (210) 922-0808 any time, day or night. The consultation is free, and there's no fee unless the firm wins. The office is at Napier Park, just off Loop 1604 in north San Antonio.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.