1. Inspecting License Points (Saldo Punti)

Every Italian driving license begins with a balance of 20 points. Monitoring these points is totally digital:

- Log in: Access the website using SPID or CIE.
- Navigate: Go to the "Patente" (License) section and select "Verifica Punti" (Check Points).
- View: The system instantly displays the existing point overall, history of deductions, and any benefits made for safe driving.

2. Paying Fees by means of PagoPA

Italy uses the PagoPA electronic payment system for all public administration costs (bollettini). When obtaining a duplicate, reserving an exam, or renewing a license, users produce a payment notification online.

- Payments can be completed instantly using charge card, online banking, or through authorized apps like Satispay and PayPal.
- The digital invoice needs to be kept and presented throughout subsequent physical appointments.

3. Upgrading Personal Data

If an individual modifications their domestic address within Italy, the motorization database should be updated.

- Through the National Registry (Anagrafe Nazionale della Popolazione Residente - ANPR) or local portals, updating the house instantly flags the change for the Motorizzazione Civile.
- Most of the times, physical stickers for the back of the license are no longer sent by mail out; rather, chauffeurs download a digital confirmation invoice.

The Reality of Getting a New License Online

For those moving to Italy or going back to square one, it is essential to clarify a common mistaken belief: An Italian driving license can not be gotten totally from home.

While the administrative process starts online, certain physical steps remain necessary by law.

The Hybrid Application Process

- Step 1: Online Submission. The applicant logs into Il Portale dell'Automobilista, fills out the required modules, submits medical certificates, and pays the required PagoPA costs.
- Step 2: Medical Examination. A physical examination by an authorized medical physician is needed to certify psychophysical physical fitness. The physician digitally transfers the medical certificate directly to the Ministry of Infrastructure and Transport.
- Step 3: Theory Test (Esame di Teoria). Prospects should reserve their computer-based theory test online through the portal or through a driving school (autoscuola). The test must be taken at a designated motorization office.
- Step 4: The Foglio Rosa (Learner's Permit). As soon as the theory examination is passed, the student's license is issued, allowing practice on public roads.
- Step 5: Practical Test. Finally, the practical driving test should be completed with a main examiner.

Converting a Foreign License Online

Expats transferring to Italy typically need to convert their foreign motorist's license into an Italian one. Depending on whether the license is from an EU/EEA country or a non-EU country with a reciprocal arrangement, the rules differ.

- EU/EEA Licenses: Generally do not need to be converted unless the holder becomes a long-term homeowner and wants to acquire an Italian document, though registration with the motorization is suggested.
- Non-EU Licenses (e.g., US, Canada, Australia): Usually legitimate for approximately one year from the date of establishing residency. After that, conversion should happen.

List for Starting a Conversion

To start the process digitally and avoid unneeded hold-ups, candidates need to prepare the following:

- Valid foreign driving license (original and photocopies).
- Main translation of the foreign license (if needed by the particular consulate or motorization workplace).
- Valid Italian house license (Permesso di Soggiorno) or EU registration.
- Medical certificate released by an authorized Italian physician.
