For those wanting to understand how these battles work, what methods exist, and whether they are right for them, this thorough guide breaks down everything you require to know.

What is a CS: GO Case Battle?

A case battle is an interactive, multiplayer game mode hosted on third-party CS: GO (and CS2) skin trading and gaming websites. Unlike standard opening, where a single gamer opens a case in seclusion, a case battle pits 2 or more players against each other utilizing the exact very same budget and case selection.

The core premise is basic:

1. Players pool their funds to buy a specific set of cases.
2. The system opens all selected cases concurrently for each participant.
3. Every dropped skin is designated a real-world market worth.
4. At the end of the round, the gamer who opened the highest overall combined value of skins wins the whole loot swimming pool.

How Case Battles Work: Step-by-Step
