A Deep Dive into the Bonus Rounds

The piece de resistance of Crazy Time isn't just the numbered segments-- it's the 4 elaborate perk video games. Experiencing these in the demonstration mode is essential due to the fact that each operates on an absolutely different concept:

1. Coin Flip

This is the most frequent bonus offer round. A coin with a red side and a blue side is flipped by a maker. Each side is designated a random multiplier before the flip. Whichever side lands face up awards the gamer that multiplier.

2. Money Hunt

Picture a giant shooting gallery screen featuring 108 random multipliers hidden behind numerous symbols (like a cactus, a target, or a sheriff's badge). The gamer uses a virtual crosshair to aim and shoot at a sign, exposing the multiplier hidden behind it.

3. Pachinko

Inspired by the traditional Japanese arcade game, this round features an enormous wall filled with pegs. The host drops a puck from the top, and it bounces down randomly till it lands in one of the slots at the bottom, each including a multiplier. If the puck arrive at a "Double," all multipliers on the board double, and the puck is dropped once again.

4. Crazy Time

This is the supreme bonus offer round, accessed through a red door behind the primary wheel. Players are carried into a lively, virtual world including an enormous, colorful wheel with 64 sectors and 3 flappers (Green, Blue, and Yellow). Players select their flapper. The wheel spins, and whatever multiplier it stops on is granted. If it strikes "Double" or "Triple," all multipliers increase, and the wheel spins once again-- scaling approximately an incredible 20,000 x max win.
