If you are the type who keeps a tidy house but dreads the big jobs, monthly house cleaning in Roanoke might be exactly what your calendar needs. A once-a-month visit from The Happy Housekeepers takes care of https://www.hometalk.com/member/263088472/estelle1453317 the scrubbing, dusting and mopping that tend to get pushed off until the weekend, and then pushed off again. The company has been helping Roanoke Valley homeowners stay ahead of that list since 1979.

Monthly service is often chosen by retirees in Cave Spring and Hunting Hills, professionals who travel for work, and households where one person already does a lot of daily upkeep. Each visit covers the full standard list: complete kitchen clean-up, total bathroom clean-up, vacuuming, mopping hard floors, dusting or polishing furniture and wiping down window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans. Waste baskets are emptied and cobwebs are cleared along the way.

Because a month gives dust and grime more time to settle, monthly visits tend to be a little more detailed than weekly ones. Ceiling fan blades, the tops of door frames and the corners behind bathroom fixtures all collect more build-up over four weeks, and the crew plans for that. If you want the occasional extra, specialized tasks like washing walls and woodwork or cleaning light fixtures can be added to a monthly visit.
