Spotting dots accurately. Choose two letter shapes that the tutor says the learner confuses. Look first at the main shape, then at how many dots it has and where they sit. Cover the first example before showing the second. Ask the learner to describe one visible difference.

Joining letters on the page. Start with a familiar word online Quran tuition UK from the assigned primer. The teacher can point out where one printed shape meets the next without separating the sounds artificially. Try the same task on an unfamiliar word chosen by the teacher. Record which join needed a second look.

For the next session, keep one activity familiar and change the example in the other. This makes it easier to see which online quran tutoring uk skill the learner can use independently.
