The core appeal of the game depends on the "cash out" mechanic, which allows players to secure their winnings at any minute before continuing to the next tile.

How the Game Mechanics Work

The game counts on a Provably Fair algorithm, guaranteeing that the positioning of mines is randomized and verifiable. When a round begins, the server generates a grid-- typically 5x5-- and disperses a predetermined variety of mines across it. The gamer then connects with the grid in the following series:

1. Setting the Parameters: Before the first click, the player picks their bet amount and the number of mines they want to consist of in the grid (e.g., 1 to 24 mines in a 25-tile grid).
2. The Reveal: The gamer clicks a tile. If it is a multiplier, the balance increases, and the player can select to "Cash Out" or continue.
3. The Risk: If a mine is activated, the round ends instantly, and the stake is surrendered.
4. The Multiplier Growth: The more mines picked at the start, the higher the multiplier for each effective tile opened.

Comprehending Risk vs. Reward

The table below highlights how various mine counts impact the prospective growth of a gamer's initial stake.

Number of Mines	Multiplier (Tile 1)	Multiplier (Tile 5)	Multiplier (Tile 10)
